BRYAN'S CANTON SPEECH IN FULL

Hanna Sets Out Upon His Tour of The Northwest—Roosevelt In Blue Grass State—Stevenson In New Jersey—Campaign News.

Canton, O., Oct. 15.—Mayor Jones of Toledo and former Attorney General Monnett joined the party on the special train of William J. Bryan before it left Akron by invitation of Mr. Bryan. It is understood Mayor Jones will accompany the presidential candidate on his New York tour.

Mr. Bryan spent the night in his sleeping car and did not emerge for almost an hour after the train had pulled out of the Akron station at 7 o'clock. The first stopping point was at Canton. This place was on the itinerary only conditionally, and when Mr. Bryan was told that he could have a stop there of five minutes if he so desired, he replied simply that whether he would speak or not should depend upon whether there was a crowd at the station.

Mr. Bryan had just sat down to breakfast when Canton was reached. As the train drew into Canton there were cheers and a goodly crowd was there to meet Mr. Bryan. He was received with cheers and made a five-minute speech, referring pleasantly to the president.

Following is the full text of Mr. Bryan's Canton speech: I believe that this stop is not on the program and I am only here for a moment. You are so accustomed here to see presidential candidates that another candidate is no curiosity. I suppose some of you in 1896 voted for your home candidate as a matter of local pride, but now you can say that Canton is the home of a president and if the election goes our way it will always be the home of an ex-president, because the title "ex" is one of those permanent titles that a man never loses. If any one insists that a man deserves a second term you can reply that one term is enough where a president does well and too much where he does not do well. You have here in your city a cannon, I believe, that was presented you as a trophy of the war. It was the custom in earlier days for cannons to bear mottoes and your cannon has inscribed upon it "Mars ultima ratio regum," which means that "war is the last resort of kings." Charles Sumner in his oration on the true character of nations delivered at Boston July 4, 1841, referred to this motto and said, "Let it be no resort of this republic." I hope that you will not merely from the possession of that cannon be led to believe that war is a thing to be desired. It ought to be further away from a republic even than from a monarchy, because in a monarchy the government rests upon force and has frequent occasion to resort to force. A king is not always restrained by those considerations which would restrain the people of a republic. In a country like this where the government rests upon the consent of the governed and where justice is the rule between this government and other governments as well as between the people there ought to be less necessity for war. In fact I believe that if this nation will stand upon its rights and be as careful to respect the rights of other people as it is to defend its own, there would be little use for war. If this nation will obey the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," it will have little difficulty in enforcing that commandment in those places where this nation is a protector. The American idea of a protectorate is different from the European idea. Under a European protectorate the protector plunders the protected. According to our theory the protector has to give the strength of the protector to its wards without making the war the victim of the protector and so we believe in the far away Philippines that this nation can be protector as it has been in the South American republics and without governing the people ourselves. We can say to the world "Hands off and let that republic live and work out its destiny." That is our theory, and we feel that it is a significant fact that the Republican party has planted itself upon the European doctrine that you must own a country in order to be of service to it at the same time that it plants itself upon the European colonial idea. You will probably find in your town a few people who will support the Republican idea of the colonial policy, but I suggest that when you find a Republican who is willing to support the colonial idea, you ask him to show his sincerity by sending a petition to the president asking him to apologize to Great Britain for the trouble we made her before we learned of the blessings of this colonial system, for if the Republican party is right today in administering colonies, taxing them without representation and governing them without their consent, then the colonials were wrong 125 years ago when they asserted that these principles were wrong. We are in Ohio for a few days and I am glad to have a chance to present our side of this question to the people of Ohio, and I trust that when the election is held the results will show that even in Ohio despite the local influence, despite the residence of the president and the residence of the chairman of the Republican national committee, the returns will show that in a great contest between the European idea of force and the American doctrine of government by consent, Ohio will be on the side of the United States instead of on the side of Europe.

At Mineral Point there was also a brief stop which was not down on the schedule. At this place, Mr. Bryan introduced Mayor Jones and Mr. Monnett as specimens of the men who were being driven from the Republican party by its policies.

At New Philadelphia Mr. Bryan spoke 40 minutes and was followed by Mayor Jones and Congressman Lentz. At Alliance Mr. Monnett was introduced before Mr. Bryan. Other principal points were Youngstown and Warren. Mr. Bryan closed his Ohio tour with an immense night meeting at Cleveland.

Roosevelt In Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 15.—Second only to the reception tendered to Governor Roosevelt at Louisville was that at this place, the first stop of the day. The governor was given the closest attention. Governor Roosevelt was introduced by ex-Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, and ex-Comptroller M. J. Durham, who served during Cleveland's first administration. A feature of the demonstration was a parade in which were several hundred rough riders. The governor said in part: "In a sense, this is peculiarly a state contest in Kentucky, but no contest for the fundamental rights of manhood can be merely a state contest. The most important of all is that you here in Kentucky should elect a representative of good citizenship in your state, good citizenship in either party, and make Yerkes governor, but you have also to elect your electoral vote, to elect your members of congress as last year you elected a legislature to choose a senator and saw a legislature that had not been elected choose a different senator and there the nation comes in with its rights.  The danger of imperialism in this country comes from ourselves if we go wrong. Never will we see our government fall unless we connive at and condone the outrages upon the ballot, that corruption of the franchise which puts in power against the will of the people those who sit in office and deprive the office of the men honestly entitled to sit there. I want to speak especially to those Democrats who still remain under the influence of a party name, that has lost all its significance. At present your leaders are persuading you to follow them on the ground that they have cheated in your interest. Your party leaders who cheat for your interests if it agrees with their interests, will cheat you as they have cheated foes before." At Winchester there was another big crowd and a procession. The governor's voice is in excellent condition. At Mt. Sterling, a mountain town, there was another demonstration. Moorehead also received Roosevelt with a parade, brass bands and rough riders. At Ashland the governor received the most enthusiastic demonstration of the day. The big iron and steel works of Ironton, O., closed to permit the employees to attend. At Covington, at night, Governor Roosevelt replied to Senator Jones' statement that the Cotton Bale company is not a trust and to William J. Bryan's defense of his position on the army question.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for vice president passed through this city from Wilmington, Del., and crossed the Delaware river to Camden, N. J., where he began a 12-hour stumping tour of southern New Jersey. Mr. Stevenson was met at the Pennsylvania railroad station in this city by a committee representing the Democrats of Camden, Bridgeton, Millville and Woodbury at each of which New Jersey cities he was scheduled to make a speech. A committee representing the Democratic state committee was also on hand to meet the distinguished candidate.

Bartenders at Carbondale, Ill., struck for pay for overtime and picnic days. Saloonkeepers refuse.

Will Ignore the Proposition of the Scranton Convention.

REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE THE UNION.

Strikers Must Return to Work on Conditions Proposed by Operators Or Not at All—Their Objections to Arbitration.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 15.—Operators interviewed as to the prospects of the anthracite strike being settled said the men can return to work again as soon as they accept the offer of the companies to increase their wages 10 per cent. Officially, they do not know of any overtures by the strikers for a settlement on any other basis. They have read of the action of the convention at Scranton, but it was a convention of United Mine Workers and they do not and will not recognize the union.

Their first official knowledge of any proposals by the strikers will be when the men of each company, represented by a committee, call on the officials of the company and declare they have agreed to go back to work if the operators will grant their requests and then they will submit the resolution of the convention as their proposal for a settlement. This is the only way in which the operators will receive any communication from the men. The operators will return the answer that the men can either accept or refuse their offer of 10 per cent as it was made Oct. 2. Several companies have made no offer of increase and what answer they will return is doubtful. The proposal of the employees will have to be differently worded from that of the others as it will bind the men to return to work providing the operators grant what the convention specified. High in mining circles, the end of the strike is not expected for some time and then only by the men giving in. The operators will stand by the first offer and say they will not increase it.

Superintendent Lathrop of the Lehigh Valley company said: "The operators will not agree to continue the payment of the 10 per cent increase for any fixed time. The other demand, abolishing the sliding scale, does not apply to this region, although the Lehigh Valley company has some collieries in the Lehigh and Schuylkill region which pay by that system. Here the men are paid by the car. The operators say, however, that the question of the scale was not discussed at any meeting of the operators, and it is impossible to say what they would do about it. The impression is that the operators would not object greatly to trying a new system of payment. As to arbitration, the operators are utterly opposed to it, and will refuse it in any form. They are willing to take up any grievances with their men, but they have always been so, and this is no change. Markle's experience with arbitration, they say, has shown them the folly of trying it because it is altogether one-sided. Despite the fact that each of Markle's 2,500 employees had signed a contract to submit to arbitration any grievances they had, they all went on strike at President Mitchell's order, without attempting arbitration. The operators declare an agreement to arbitrate would be binding to one side only; that they would be held to it and the men would not."

Holding Out at Hazleton.

Hazleton, Oct. 15.—The fifth week of the coal miners' strike opened quietly. The few collieries that have continued in operation since the strike was inaugurated are working as usual with the same number of men they had in the mines last week. Not one of the collieries, however, is working full handed. Two crowds gathered, one at number 40 shaft of the Lehigh Valley Coal company in this city and the other at the Cranberry mine on the outskirts of the town, but dispersed before daylight without causing any trouble. The march to the Panther Creek valley, where a majority of the mines are still in operation, was called off on account of rain. President Mitchell has returned from Scranton.

Sham Kin Mines Still Shut

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 15.—Not a colliery resumed operation in this portion of the coal region Monday morning. While miners generally think the terms of the convention will be accepted by operators and coal carrying companies, operators hereabouts insist that so far as they are concerned they will not unless forced to by the coal carrying companies, sign an agreement to pay 10 per cent.

Charles Evanston arrested at Lincoln, Neb., on charge of robbing Union bank, Richmond, Mich., of $6,000 cash and $40,000 securities Oct. 5, 1898.

CUBAN POSTAL SCANDAL.

Preparing the Evidence For the Trial Of Rathbone and Neely.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Since his return from the investigation of the Cuban postal frauds, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has been engaged in formulating the evidence to be submitted by the department when those arrested are brought to trial. The record of every official from Rathbone down has been gone into, and the lives of all before they became associated with the Cuban postal system have been investigated.

It is practically decided that the former director general shall be tried on four charges. The first charge will be that through his negligence, his subordinates were enabled to cheat the government. The Cuban law makes Rathbone responsible for every cent taken by Neely and others. The second charge is that Rathbone took $1,000 for which he never gave vouchers. The third charge deals with the per diem allowances made to him by the postmaster general. The fourth charge deals with his extravagant expenditure of the government funds.

NOT GUILTY

Say Patrick and Jones to Charge of Forging Millionaire's Name.

New York, Oct. 15.—Albert T. Patrick and Charles F. Jones, the former one of the counsel and the latter valet for the late William M. Rice, millionaire, appeared before police Magistrate Crane charged with complicity in forging the name of William M. Rice to a check for $25,000, drawn in favor of Patrick on the banking house of S. M. Swenson and Sons.

Patrick gave his age as 34 years, said he was born in Texas and that he was a lawyer by profession. Patrick and Jones both pleaded not guilty. Patrick's bearing in court was calm and confident.

Republican Forecast.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—Henry C. Payne, vice chairman of the Republican national executive committee, gave out his first forecast of the election. Mr. Payne made an estimate of the votes by states, and in doing so divided the states into four classes—twenty-four states having 270 electoral votes, certain for McKinley; twelve states, having 115 electoral votes certain for Bryan; six states, having 38 electoral votes in which the chances of Republican or Democratic success are even, and three states, having 24 votes in which the chances are sixty to forty in favor of the Democrats.

Claim of Populists.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 15.—The People's party national committee issues a public statement claiming that Hon. William J. Bryan will be elected. It is claimed he has lost none of the support he had in 1896, with his chances more than even in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, South Dakota, Washington and West Virginia. The doubtful states are enumerated as follows: California, Connecticut, Delaware, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Bryan In New York.

New York, Oct. 15.—W. J. Bryan is scheduled to arrive in this city at 2:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A committee will meet him, including Adlai E. Stevenson and Webster Davis. He will be taken to the Hoffman house, where suites have been reserved. Mr. Bryan will speak at Madison Square garden, Cooper union and Tammany hall.

Prohibition Train.

Salamanca, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The Prohibition special train left Buffalo over the Erie, reaching Jamestown, the first stop, at 8 a. m. A meeting was held in the city hall. The next stop was Salamanca. Afternoon stops were Wellsville, Hornellsville, Dalton, Castile, Warsaw, Batavia and Avon, reaching Rochester for night meeting.

Rathbone's Block Didn't Sell.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 15.—The Riley block, owned by Major E. G. Rathbone, late director of posts in Cuba, was offered for sale under foreclosure proceedings, but there were no bidders. It was appraised at $97,000.

Wheeled In, Driven Out.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 15.—Another Dowlette, Edward Williams of Benton Harbor, Mich., was here Monday morning, having ridden on a bicycle from Crestline. He was sent out of the city by the police.

Strike Against Reduced Wages.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 15.—Monday 350 hands employed at the New Haven rolling mill went on strike. The men complain of a reduction in wages ranging from 5 to 17½ per cent.

Linia, O., Oct. 15.—Twelve boys, ranging from 7 to 15, were arraigned on a charge of burglary for a series of petty thefts. They pleaded guilty.

TRIAL MUST PROCEED.

Youtsey Brought Into the Courtroom On His Bed.

FURTHER CONTINUANCE REFUSED.

Defense Asks That Howard Be Brought From Frankfort to Testify—Youtsey Is in a Hysterical Condition.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 15.—When court convened, Mr. Nelson, for the defense, said the physicians reported Youtsey's condition unchanged and asked for further postponement.

Mr. Franklin, for the commonwealth, objected and said if the accused was always sick when the trial was on and well between times, there never would be a trial. Col. Campbell for the prosecution said the physicians held that Youtsey was able to hear and understand and reason, but that he could not always talk. He read from the text books to show that Youtsey was simulating. Mr. Nelson said he and Judge Askew were alone with Youtsey and tried in every way they knew to arouse him, but got no response.

Judge Cantrill overruled the motion for continuance and said that all the rights of the defendants would be preserved under the law.

Colonel Crawford asked that the physicians be allowed to testify to the condition of the defendant. On that motion Dr. Carrick said Youtsey was weaker and no better. While Dr. Knox was testifying the door of Youtsey's room opened and he could be heard groaning and sobbing hysterically. Judge Cantrill said he had no discretion in the matter and that the trial must proceed. The commonwealth was given until 2 p. m. to say whether it would object to allowing Youtsey to remain in the jury room during the trial.

On convening after noon the court said it had no discretion in the matter and unless counsel would agree he would have to rule that Youtsey must actually be present in court. No agreement could be reached and at 2:30 Youtsey was brought to the door of the court room on his bed and the door left open.

The defense asked that James Howard be brought from the jail in Frankfort to testify at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning on behalf of Youtsey.

Cow Ditched a Train.

Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 15.—South-bound freight on Evansville and Terre Haute struck a cow and was derailed near Pureell. Eighteen ears stacked up and burned in a heap, four of them having oil tanks which ignited. H. M. C., a race horse belonging to Mr. Kenney of Evansville, was killed and Emma, another racer belonging to Mr. Kliney had a leg broken and was shot. The charred body of R. B. Jerusalem, of Vincennes, formerly of Indianapolis, was found in the wreck. Thomas Enright of Henderson, Ky., had an arm broken and narrowly escaped death. James Alsop, New Harmony, Ind., had his breast crushed. It is believed the body of the head brakeman, who is missing, is still in the wreck.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—An open switch at Eighty-fifth street probably purposely misplaced, wrecked the New York and Boston express on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern. Fireman H. J. Jerough of Elkhart, Ind., and an unidentified tramp were killed. No passengers injured. Engine, two mail and two express cars piled in a heap but passenger coaches did not leave track. Four boys, suspected of having caused the wreck were arrested. The boys, ranging in age from 9 to 11 years, deny that they wrecked the train, but one of them said he knew two boys who had stolen parts of the switches.

Advanced on the Docket.

Washington, Oct. 15.—The supreme court granted motions advancing the Neely case and the cases involving the question of the extension of the constitution over the Philippines and Porto Rico to the second week in November. A number of minor decisions were handed down.

Murder or Suicide.

Phillipsburg, Mont., Oct. 15.—Miss Amanda Fairman, a prominently connected young woman, was found dead in her room having been shot. A shot gun was lying on the table. The suicide theory is emphatically denied and it is believed she was murdered.

Ferrell on Trial.

Marysville, O., Oct. 15.—Roslyn Ferrell's trial for the murder of Express Agent Lane began here before Judge Melhorn. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell, the young man's parents, and Mrs. Lane, widow of his victim, are present.

The weather—
 Fair to-day and Wednesday.
 Cooler Wednesday.

THE Vanceburg Sun refers to Teddy Roosevelt as "the hero of El Caney." The Sun, like Teddy himself, ignores the colored soldiers who saved the Rough Riders from annihilation on that occasion.

PRESIDENT ELIOT, of Harvard College, and President Laughlin, of the University of Chicago, who supported McKinley four years ago, announced that they will not vote for the re-election of Mark Hanna's trust and imperial nominee.

REPUBLICANS are resorting to their old tactics of colonizing voters in close States. They have been sneaking a lot of colored men into West Virginia. The Democratic State Committee has obtained the names of over 300 imported men, and the "floaters" will be arrested when they offer to vote.

HERE'S a straw our Republican friends will not care to see: The entire registration at Ludlow, Kenton County, this year numbers 784, of whom 500 are Democrats. At the last Presidential election McKinley received a majority of fifty-four in the town. It can be seen that it looks like a landslide in Ludlow on election day.

THE Buckeye Republican Club of Columbus, O., has expelled ex-Attorney General Monnett, who on Friday night declared for Bryan. The club recognizes that his abandonment of the Republican party just at this time is a severe blow. His bitter arraignment of McKinley, Hanna & Co. for defending the trusts cannot fail to have its effect on the campaign in Ohio.

In the last two years of McKinleyism there have been created 700 or 800 trusts in the United States, representing a capitalization of $5,000,000,000. It is safe to add that full $4,000,000,000 of this alleged capital is "water;" in other words the money for it has never been put up and never will be put up. But the combines expect to rob the people of enough money to pay dividends on all this "watered" stock. And that's the most infamous feature about this trust business.

REPUBLICAN editors and speakers, especially in Kentucky, have so long resorted to misrepresentation that the habit has become chronic. Their latest along this line is a special sent out from Louisville stating that the Democratic Campaign Committee had taken Senator Blackburn off the stump in Kentucky, adding that "a grand rally was held in Bardstown Saturday and Blackburn was conspicuous because of his absence." Mr. Blackburn's absence at Bardstown was due simply to the fact that he was making a speech in Delaware at the time the Bardstown rally was in progress.

THERE remains but one course open to him (Taylor), and that is to return as soon as he can, walk bravely and boldly into court and meet the indictment like a man. Any other course would be rank injustice not only to himself, but to those of his friends who have been accused of so foul a crime. I do not know whether the indictment has been found against Mr. Taylor, but I have no doubt if it is that he will promptly surrender himself into the hands of the law, and believe that any intimation to the contrary does him injustice.—Ex-Gov. Bradley, Apr. 2nd.

The world knows what Taylor has done since April 2nd. According to Mr. Bradley, the fugitive Taylor stands convicted of "rank injustice not only to himself, but to those of his friends who have been accused of so foul a crime." But, come to think of it, Mr. Bradley is also guilty of "rank injustice" to some of these friends of Taylor. They wanted him to testify for them, but he kept away from Kentucky until their trial was over.

GRANT'S SON

Gives Money to Form Democratic Clubs in California.

[San Diego (Cal.) Cor. New York World.] Jesse R. Grant, youngest son of the ex-President, has returned from Arizona, where he has extensive mining interests, to enter actively into the campaign. Four years ago Grant declared himself in favor of free silver. This year he intends to devote his time to working for Bryan's success.

By signing the roll of the local Bryan club, now a strong organization, he gave Committeeman McCarthy funds to be used in organizing Bryan Democratic clubs in this section of the State. A portion of the money will go to the support of the Mexican Bryan club, which was formed this week with about sixty voting members.

GENERAL WEAVER,

A Founder of the Republican Party, Working for Bryan.

Has Made Many Speeches in Western Kentucky and Says the State's All Right—Good News from Out West.

[Enquirer, Oct. 15th.]

General J. B. Weaver, of Colfax, Iowa, one of the founders of the Republican party, who voted for Fremont and Lincoln and Grant, who entered the Union army as a private in the very beginning of the Civil war and came out at the end a Brigadier General, who has served three terms in Congress and been a candidate for President, is at the Gibson, on his speech-making tour of many States, urging his countrymen to vote for William J. Bryan.

"Where have you been speaking lately, General?" asked the Enquirer man.

"I am just from a hustings trip through Western Kentucky, the First, Second and Third districts, the storm center of the political disturbance among Democrats in State affairs. I found large and enthusiastic audiences to meet me wherever I spoke, and could not have been better pleased with the impression that was made upon me. The people were seriously attentive, and hundreds in those meetings who had been cold and inclined to vote the Republican ticket came forward and assured me that they would hesitate no longer, but vote for the Democratic ticket, State and National. Mr. Bryan will carry the State beyond all question, and Mr. Beckham will be the next Governor. The conviction of an accessory and the assassin of Governor Goebel has made a profound impression among the people that is unchangeable. The Republican party in that State signed its death warrant when it endorsed in its platform the brief and bloody administration of Taylor, the resolutions being written by the hand of Mr. Yerkes himself, its candidate for Governor. That platform is the death knell of Republicanism in that State in this election year."

"What of these blatant claims of the Republicans to Nebraska?"

"All bosh, mere moonshine. The Republicans know as well as the Democrats do that they have no chance whatever to carry Nebraska, and they are setting up the claim to the State for the effect it will have elsewhere and the knowledge that there are two United States Senators to be elected in that State next winter. Mr. Bryan will carry the State with ease, and a Democratic Governor and Legislature will be elected. I spent some time in Nebraska speaking a short time ago, and while I have canvassed that State and Kansas in several campaigns I never saw it in better shape for the Democrats."

"What about Kansas?"

"That is a State I know thoroughly. My mother and father lived and died there. I have brothers and sisters there, and spent many years of my life there, and carried it when I ran for President. I have spoken all over the State at different times, and spent a week speaking there in this campaign. It will give Mr. Bryan as large a majority or larger than it did in 1896, for thousands of Germans and Russians within its borders will vote for him in this election who were solidly arrayed against him four years ago. The Populists know they have nothing to expect from the Republican party, and they are all inside the Democratic ranks in this campaign. Don't worry about Kansas. I know that State from top to bottom. It is perfectly safe for Bryan. South Dakota will go Democratic by a much larger vote than it did in 1896, and no reasonable Republican in Montana claims that State. North Dakota may go Republican as it did in 1896, but it is an uncertain State. When I ran for President it gave the Democratic candidate one vote, the Republican candidate one vote and myself one vote. So you see it divided its Electors, and may do so in this election."

"How about your own State, Iowa?"

"It will cast its Electoral vote for McKinley, but the Democrats are certain to gain two Congressmen, elect their candidates in my old district, the Sixth, and in the Davenport district, and there is a strong probability of electing their candidates in two other districts. In 1890 the Democrats elected five members to Congress. It has been for the want of organization that the Democrats have not made a better showing from time to time."

OPPOSED REPEAL

Of the Goebel Law. Have the Republicans. They Have Blocked Every Effort. Berry Howard Still Free.

LEXINGTON, KY., October 14.—President Carter, of the Senate, spent to-day here and in talking said:

"There is little or no chance for a change in the election law and the Republicans alone are to blame. They have blocked every effort of honest Democrats. They will keep up their hypocritical cry against the Goebel law, and if they succeed in getting in control they will make it so tight that the Democrats will be out for years."

"It is the desire of the Republicans to have the whole State as much under control as they have the Eleventh district. In the fastnesses of those mountains they have no regard for any law. As an instance of their utter disregard for law, a prominent attorney, who practices in the courts of the Eleventh district, told me that a few days ago he was arranging in his office at Pineville the deed to some property which had been sold to an Eastern syndicate. It became necessary to have some one describe the boundaries of the property."

Berry Howard, who is under indictment for complicity in the assassination of Governor Goebel, was sent for. He came in with a Deputy Sheriff as a bodyguard, and while in the attorney's office the Sheriff of Bell County, who has a warrant from the Franklin Circuit Court for the arrest of Berry Howard, came in, shook hands with him and served upon him a subpoena as a witness in the Yontey case at Georgetown, at the same time remarking sarcastically: "I guess you'll tell 'em all you know."

OPPOSED BRYAN

Four Years Ago, But Ex-Senator Lykins Is for Him Now.

CANEY, KY., October 12.—J. C. Lykins, of Campton, Ky., ex-Representative of this (the Ninety-first Legislative) district, and a gold-standard Democrat, is out in a statement saying that he will support Bryan and Beckham.

Mr. Lykins was a member of the Legislature in 1896 and 1897, when there was such a hot fight over the election of a United States Senator, and was one of the Democrats that voted for Carlisle. Lykins says he will canvass the Tenth Congressional district. Lykins was against Goebel last year.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN SHORT.

Former Auditor's Agent at Owensboro Behind $795, But He Will Make it Good.

FRANKFORT, KY., October 13.—State Inspector Henry B. Hines has filed in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts a report showing T. L. Karns, Auditor's Agent in Daviess County during the Republican administration, to be short in his accounts with the State to the amount of $795. Of this amount $591 is due for delinquent taxes from 1898 to the present time, and $204 due on whisky taxes collected from the Glenmore distillery for the year 1896 and 1897. Karn has acknowledged the shortage and will make it good without a suit being filed against him.

THE ROOSEVELT MEETING.

It Must Have Been a Disappointment to Republicans in Point of Attendance and Enthusiasm.

The much-heralded and widely-advertised Roosevelt meeting Monday afternoon must have been a sore disappointment to our Republican friends in point of attendance and enthusiasm.

Estimates of the crowd vary widely. A conservative Republican placed it at from 2,000 to 3,000. An ex-Democrat at 4,000 to 5,000. A Republican enthusiast at 7,000 to 8,000, and so on. But a newspaper man on board the Colonel's train, who, of course, has seen and sized up many crowds of late, placed yesterday's crowd at from 1,500 to 2,500. One thing is certain, the attendance was not near up to expectations.

And then there was so little enthusiasm the lack of it excited comment. It fell to the lot of Hon. A. E. Wilson, of Louisville, to entertain the crowd, pending the arrival of the Roosevelt party. Judge Beckner was advertised as Mr. Wilson's assistant, but he failed to show up. Mr. Wilson spoke for over two hours, and his arms must be very sore to-day, as he gave about the finest exhibition of elocutionary gymnastics that has ever been witnessed here. As a geometer, Col. Wilson is decidedly a success, and it can be added that he is an able speaker. But, for some reason or other, his crowd was not very responsive as he was greeted with comparatively little applause.

Col. Roosevelt's train arrived at 4:45. Cheers greeted the distinguished New Yorker. He was introduced by Editor Davis, and spoke for ten minutes. At the close there were renewed cheers and more cheering as the train pulled out.

The marriage of Mr. Richard T. Anderson, Jr., of Lexington, and Miss Lottie Baldwin Reesop will be solemnized Wednesday evening at the Church of the Nativity. Miss Miss Bessie McCann, of Lexington, will be maid of honor, and Mr. Jesse Gathright, of Lonsville, best man. There will be no other attendants except the ushers, who are friends of the bride in this city. Quite a number of relatives from Lexington and Louisville will attend, among them Mr. John E. Anderson, Mr. R. T. Anderson and Miss Minnie Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William E. McCann, Miss Mary Stoll, of Lexington. After a trip East, the bride and groom will live at the handsome Anderson home on West Third street, Lexington.

Mr. Thomas Barry was thought to be some better Monday evening.

Price Upon Slaves.

[Boston Post]
William McKinley's crime against the flag is his consent that human slavery shall continue to exist under its folds in a territory which surely is "subject to the jurisdiction" of the United States.
Slavery does exist in the Sulu Islands.
Mr. McKinley himself does not deny this fact. It exists there by his agreement with the yellow sloop of that land that the slaves should remain in bondage under the American flag until they should purchase their freedom at "the usual market price." McKinley is probably the only President of the United States who has put a price upon commercial traffic in human beings.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose primary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easily proven that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. M. L. Spencer, grocer, of Forest avenue, says: "For many years I was troubled from the lack of proper action of the kidneys. I feared the incipient stage of diabetes and learning about Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, I procured a box.
The benefit derived from its use warranted me continuing the treatment.
The results obtained in the cases of others I know as well as in my own is a guarantee of the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills."

ocean, and from great lakes to gulf, in every city, town and village of the country Democratic meetings will be held October 27, and will be addressed by the ablest speakers that the scope of this gigantic plan will permit.

This was the scheme announced today by the Democratic National Committee, which has already set in motion necessary for the consummation of such a project.

In the consummation of this plan the

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle.
Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles."

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep,"
but, like many proverbs, that will not stand.
Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally.
Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire.
These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1899.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month.
A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended.
I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.
